Majority of Democratic Candi date in Virginia May Reach 45,000,

ALL AMENDMENTS ADOPTED

Slemp Wins in Ninth, but Ayers May Contest His Election.

Later returns received from various counties of the State yesterday indicate a slight increase in Wilson's lead and his apparent majority Tuesday night of 45,000 may be increased to 50,000 votes. Roosevelt is slowly gaining on Taft, and if this continues as it did through the figures received yesterday, the Bull Moose leader likely will run second in Virginis.

In many of the counties there was absolutely no interest taken in the amendments, but the few figures that are coming in show continued gains in the vote for all the amendments, and it is not regarded that there is any doubt but that all three were ratified by large majorities.

With practically all the Ninth District heard from, Congressman Slemphas a majority of nearly 1,20) votes over General Ayers, his Democratic opponent, the candidacy of Walter Graham, on the Progressive ticket, having fadled to make inroads on the usual Republican strength in that district. General Ayers, in a statement issued yesterday, charges that the pre-election agreement signed on behalf of Slemp and himself, in the movement to secure clean elections, not to spend money or use liquor in the effort to secure clean elections, not to spend money or use liquor in the effort to Chairman Pendieton, of Slemp's campaign committee, is delighted with the triumph of Slemp, especially because it came in spite of the personal appeals to Moosers by Colonel Roosevelt. Chairman Pendleton said: There is no man in Virginia more popular with the masses than Mr. Slemp. Because of the loyalty of the masses of his party to him, even the Progressives, who felt almost duty-bound to obey the voice of their great chief, would not heed the advice. We are proud of the triumph, not because of any feeling of spite for their great chief, would not heed the advice. We are proud of the triumph, not because of any feeling of spite for the stand Colonel Roosevelt took in the fight. Mr. Slemp has always been a friend of Roosevelt, and in Chicago he did nothing more than to obey the instructions given him by the Repusilican State Convention as Roossake. It was not because of any ill-will for Roosevelt, but because he would not violate his instructions, that he has been so generally referred to as an bestinate stand-patter. Above all of the criticism. Mr. Slemp stands cut as a man whose life and influence appeal to the people. His triumph this time by more than four times what he received two years age, in spite of the orders against him by Colonel Roosevelt in the last hours of the campaign, is a high compliment to the worth of the man."
